

The rivers: Noire, Coulonge and Dumoine

FRANÇAISPRINTENGLISH

This summer, Expéditions Rivière Noire invites you to paddle the pristine waters of the three sister-rivers of the Pontiac, for an unforgettable experience during which you will enjoy the intense pleasures of canoe-camping.

The Noire, Coulonge and Dumoine rivers are offering canoeists hundreds of paddling waterways, allowing the discovery of magnificent wild sceneries that are breath-taking. During your river run on these waters rich in history and splendors, you will benefit from what mother nature has best to offer: sandy beaches, numerous campsites, limpid waters, enchanting landscapes, the opportunity to observe the flora and the animal wildlife... a perfect setting for a privileged moment of relaxation!

Expéditions Rivière Noire invites you to discover these three magnificent rivers which still remain to this day hidden secrets in the heart of the Pontiac.
